

Look Down that Lonesome Road

Source: Don Pedi from Carlton Gaither

Tune DGD / can also be played in DAA
(Both are Ionian mode scale)

Look Up, look down that lonesome road,
Hang down your little head and cry, my love;
Hang down your little head and cry.

The darkest night I ever saw
Was the day I left my home, my love;
Was the day I left my home.

The two best friends must part some day,
So, why not you and I, my love;
So why not you and I.

...additional verses from the singing of Doc Watson:

The longest train I ever saw
Went down that Georgia line, my love;
Went down that Georgia line.

The only girl I ever loved
Is on that train and gone, my love;
Is on that train and gone.

I never thought when we first met
This awful day would come, my love;
This awful day would come.
